DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Peterson et al. (5,732,600). Peterson et al. discloses a steering column comprising a first U-joint (40) connectable with a steering wheel of a vehicle, a first shaft (50) pivotally attached to said first U-joint and rotatable about a longitudinal axis of said first shaft upon rotation of said first U-joint; a second shaft (48) drivingly connected to said first shaft having a slip joint connection (see fig. 2) with said first shaft permitting relative axial movement of said first and second shafts while maintaining a rotary drive connection between said first and second shafts, a second U-joint (42) pivotally attached to said second shaft and connectable with a steering mechanism of a vehicle; said first shaft comprising first and second shaft parts and a reusable quick disconnect bolt and nut joint (54) between said first and second shaft parts permitting disconnection of said first and second shaft parts and pivoting of said first shaft part relative to said first U-joint to a first out of the way position and pivoting of said second shaft part relative to said second U-joint to a second out of the way position. Peterson et al. further discloses a first shaft part including a first surface extending parallel to said longitudinal axis of said first shaft part engageable with a second surface on said second shaft part extending parallel to said first surface.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 3/15/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

During an interview on March 10, 2004, it was agreed that the rejection of claims 1-10 was improper. However, after discussing the case with SPE, David Bucci, it was determined that the Peterson et al. reference meets the limitations of the claims. The Peterson et al. shaft assembly would, in fact, be reusable, as it is not damaged in any way. Although the sleeve (152) is plastically deformed, it does not prevent the shaft assembly from being disassembled and reassembled.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
